

UNESCO/APEID Meeting

Agricultural ESD (Ag-ESD) Internship Program at the University of Tsukuba

R. Kurokawa ¹⁾, Y-W. Chen ¹⁾, M. Fujishiro ¹⁾, S. Meng ¹⁾, Y. Miki ¹⁾, D. Taylor, H. Hasegawa, A. Tajima, T. Takigawa

Graduate School of Life and Environmental Sciences
University of Tsukuba

1) Graduate Students under Ag-ESD Internship Program

Ag-ESD Symposium at University of Tsukuba

➢ Nov 4th – 11th, 2008

➢ In collaboration with

Kasetsart Univ.
UPLB
Bogor Agr. Univ.
Ibaraki Univ.

➢ 5 Graduate students enrolled in the Ag-ESD Internship Program (1 cr elective course)

Introduction M. Fujishiro

● Internship program was a great opportunity for us

- To know current issues on sustainable development of Agriculture
- To communicate with international guests

1. International Understanding R. Kurokawa

For International problems
Global Environment, Economical Development and Poverty Alleviation ...

- Only knowledge
- Without reality

↓

How did I change after AgESD symposium ?

4 points M. Fujishiro

- Outline of our experience -

1. International Understanding
2. Unusual Experience
3. Poster Session
4. Friendship Program

Presentation and Discussion R. Kurokawa

Presentation on Current Status and Problems

Discussion

Importance of International Cooperation became very clear.

Reception R. Kurokawa

Enjoy Talking and Eating

Direct Communication!

Develop Friendships with people from different countries.

2. Unusual Experience S. Meng

- Chairperson Needs to check CV of speakers beforehand.
- Even with practice, I could not introduce the speakers well.

It took courage to say "Time is up!" to a speaker that goes overtime

1. International Understanding R. Kurokawa

For International problems
Global Environment, Economical Development and Poverty Alleviation ...

- Only knowledge
- Without reality

Activities in this symposium

- I now feel these issues as my own problems
- International viewpoint is important

in Bangkok

December 4th - 11th, 2008

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

大学院の授業科目である「国際農学ESDインターンシップ」を履修した5名の大学院生が、「国際農学ESDシンポジウム」で得た経験を発表するために、12月4日から11日にかけてUNESCOバンコク事務所が主催するAPEID会議に出席する予定でした。ところが、あいにくバンコク国際空港が閉鎖されたため、会議が延期になってしまい、改めて2009年3月24日～26日に開催される会議に出席いたしました。

Acknowledgment

Project title:

“Construction and Practice of the International Ag-ESD Program”

Under :

Program to Accelerate International Education at University

Funded by:

Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science
and Technology (MEXT)

Acknowledgment

- We are very grateful for the chance to be student interns during the symposium.
- Thanks for the internship program

Thank you for your attention.

Impression

- The party played an important role in opening communication.
- We learn much from each other through cultural exchange.
- Friendship crosses international borders.

E F C

Y. Cheng

Enjoy Japanese food

Friendship

Cultural exchange

Poster Session

Y. Miki

1) Training

- English communicating training.
- Expression techniques.
- Obtain and share new knowledge or techniques.

2) Community

- Share common knowledge.
- Create a small community.

3) Prize

- Find an important career.
- Provides motivation!

2. Unusual Experience

Everything was a new experience for me !!

It is very difficult to manage the discussion

3. Poster Session

Y. Miki

- Poster session on November 6.
- 17 students presented papers.
- Ms. Kurokawa and I also presented posters.
- Difficult but very interesting.

3 important POINTs

